State Assets Mobilize to Dawes County Fires

Nebraska state assets are mobilizing to two fires in Dawes County near Crawford. The Nebraska Emergency Management Agency sent four staff to work on multi-agency coordination and two Nebraska Army National Guard UH 60 Blackhawk helicopters left Lincoln at 10 a.m. today.

A Federal Type II team took command of the fire at noon today.

The first reported fire is northwest of Ft. Robinson State Park and the other is southeast of Crawford in the Nebraska National Forest.
